Im4Rights Dumps Anti-American Platforms

Im4Rights is proud to say that you will no longer find our content on Facebook, Instagram, or Twitter and soon we will no longer be seen on YouTube. With a brand like "Im4Rights," it makes no sense for us to be associated with social media platforms that censor and discriminate against conservative viewpoints in blatant disregard of the First Amendment's right to free speech. Understandably, private businesses may do what they want in this respect; however, it seems odd that it is illegal to discriminate against someone for a bank loan, housing, and many other private business services on the basis of race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, etc., yet big tech can refuse services to those exercising their basic rights to free speech. Im4Rights is all in for free speech, and the entire Bill of Rights, so if a business is not, then Im4Rights will do its best not to patronize that business.

Find Us on New Platforms

Since we dumped the anti-American platforms mentioned above, Im4Rights has migrated to new social media platforms that are friendlier to free speech. We can now be found on MeWe, Rumble, Gab, Patreon, and Parler (when it secures a new web hosting service). We are also looking into Locals.com as well, so stay tuned for updates on that front. Im4Rights.com is going to become more prominent in our efforts to promote and protect the Constitution and the Bill of Rights, especially the Second Amendment. If you are interested in participating in these efforts, please sign up on our web site for this free newsletter or a free account that will give you access to our blog page. Beginning with next month's newsletter, only those who have signed up to receive the newsletter or created an account at Im4Rights.com will receive the newsletter. This step is necessary for two reasons 1) it allows us to keep in touch with you in the event social media platforms go dark, and 2) it will allow us to take better advantage of our web site's ability to track who is subscribed and who is not. Other than our newsletter and an occasional update of extreme importance, Im4Rights will not overload or spam your inbox, and we will never provide your information to anyone else.

Elections Have Consequences

In his first nine days in office, Der Führer Biden executed a record 40 executive actions, including 28 executive orders, and 12 assorted proclamations, memorandums, and agency directives. Many of the actions were specifically taken to overturn actions previously initiated by former President Trump. With the stroke of his pen, Biden wiped out many thousands of jobs related to the Keystone XL pipeline and the construction of the southern border wall. We knew this was coming from Biden, and anyone who voted for Biden out of hatred for Trump can now rejoice along with the rest of the liberal elite over the elimination of thousands of jobs as well as the degradation of our energy independence and our border security. In the event the election was not stolen, which still has not been disproven, you get what you vote for, and the nation will have to sleep in the bed it has made. The nation will pay the price for the pettiness of those who wouldn't just hold their nose and vote for Trump. It is always about the lesser of two evils! Elections have consequences, and we are in the fast lane to one-party rule. It may be a long, long time before we see the promise of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness again.

If you've made it this far...

Im4Rights Patreon accounts now include Im4Rights branded ball caps and polo shirts. Patriot level memberships include a free ball cap. Minuteman level memberships include a free polo shirt, and Max-Defender level memberships include both a ball cap and a polo shirt. Also, we are running a promotion where the first ten new members who join at any level in February will receive a check in the amount of $25 dollars along with their cap and/or shirt just for joining. Basically, that pays for the Patriot level membership. Give us a try; you literally have nothing to lose!
