That's a Wrap...

This will be the last edition of In Support of Freedom for the foreseeable future. I have not had the time or inclination to do the things I need to do to make Im4Rights, LLC grow the way I had hoped when I started it in 2020. So, I'm going to mothball the operation until I reach retirement in two or three years, then I'll give it another try. In the next month, I will be deleting all the Im4Rights social media sites, but I will continue with a minimized version of the im4rights.com web site, where I will likely make occasional blog posts.

I have enjoyed writing this newsletter, and hopefully there were some helpful nuggets of information and some enjoyable opinion pieces. In the end, my day job, which has always paid the bills for Im4Rights, has to take priority especially since receiving a promotion a couple months ago. I hope you enjoy this final issue. Past newsletters with additional content added for Im4Rights Locals.com supporters will now be posted to the im4rights.com web site

No Red Wave...

Once again, our 50/50 country failed to get out of its own way during the mid-term elections. The much ballyhooed red wave never materialized. A minor victory in taking back the House, was offset by either an outright loss of the Senate or a status quo event, where the Democrat Vice President maintains the tie-breaking vote. At least, we're done with Pelosi's reign over the House, but who's to say the new Republican Speaker of the House will be any better. Regardless of any House actions, the Senate will stand in the way of any impeachment efforts that might result from House finding. So, no change for the better is on the horizon for our country.

The 2024 General Election is shaping up to be a shit-show. Trump has thrown his hat into the ring, despite all the efforts to convict him of something in order to disqualify him from running. Remember when Hilary should have been arrested and convicted for her email scandal and other illegalities? No action has ever been taken against her. The Biden Crime Family has gotten off as well, but Trump? They will not stop. That said, I believe Trump is the only Republican that could lose to Biden (or whoever else they put up). He has been single-handedly responsible for mobilizing the Democrat party to use whatever schemes they can develop to cheat the true, legal voters out of fair and honest elections. Unfortunately, the die has been cast for all future elections unless major reforms are made. With mail-in balloting being so prevalent, and only about 50% of registered voters voting, it is a simple matter to search publicly available election records to determine people who have not voted for years and vote on their behalf. All of this is designed to introduce further apathy in voters, decreasing voter turnout, so they can manipulate the vote even more easily.

But, What about Bubba?

The saga continues. The transmission shop threw in the towel, saying they couldn't get the truck to stay running after two other shops tried as well. I went to the shop to pay for the work and to have them show me what they had done, but I couldn't get it into another shop until November 1st, so there it sat. To their credit they offered to tow it to the next shop for free. I had emailed them the address of the shop I had found, but didn't hear back from them, so of course it was not delivered to the next shop on the 1st. I called them and apparently my email went to their junk folder. Anyway, they said they would deliver it the next day. Of course, nothing is that simple with Bubba. The next day they started it up to get it on the vehicle hauler, and low and behold it spewed transmission fluid all over the place. As I write this the shop is working with the torque converter manufacturer to get a replacement, presumably under warranty. Once again, I have been told it will be next week. If I had a dime for every time I've been told that over the course of the last few years, I'd have enough money for the repairs. Stay tuned to im4rights.com, where I'll post further news on the misadventures of Bubba the Freedom Truck.

Happy Holidays, and Fare-thee-well...

May you and your families have a great Thanksgiving, a Merry Christmas, and a Happy, Healthy, and Prosperous New Year! We'll see you down the road.

All the best,
